

BC Refugees JobConnect

Connecting Refugees to Employment

What is BC Refugees JobConnect?

- An easy-to-use web-based platform - www.bcrefugeesjobconnect.ca
- A space for you to create an online profile and show your résumé/CV.
- An opportunity to market your skills to BC employers that are looking for people.

Who is BC Refugees JobConnect for?

- All refugees living in BC, who arrived in Canada in 2011 or later, and
- Are currently seeking employment.

What are the benefits of BC Refugees JobConnect?

- IEC-BC will use BC Refugees JobConnect to promote your work experience, skills and abilities to employers.
- It's free. It doesn't cost anything to register with BC Refugees JobConnect.

What do you need to register with BC Refugees JobConnect?

- You will need your Unique Client Identifying (UCI) number or Permanent Residence (PR) number. It is on all official documents you get from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). It has four numbers, a hyphen and four more numbers. (Example: 1234-5678)
- An email address.

For more information, please contact:

Fionan Griffin, Project Coordinator
Immigrant Employment Council of BC

bcrefugeesjobconnect@iecbc.ca

604-629-5364 ext 111

Funded by:

Financé par :

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Immigration, Réfugiés
et Citoyenneté Canada